Our Parish is twinned with Sacred Heart Parish, Dundee Diocese, South Africa

On the road between Billericay and Wickford, just as you go past Crays Hill primary school, there is a simple War Memorial which has been erected to commemorate those men from Ramsden Crays who lost their lives during the First and Second World Wars.

I must have made the journey along that road hundreds of times over the years but it was only this week that I noticed the memorial. Across the country there are thousands of war memorials in villages, towns and cities. They are an eloquent reminder to us not only of the sacrifices that previous generations made on our behalf but also of the way in which both World Wars touched the lives of people from every part of this land, even the most remote villages and hamlets.

This Sunday we will remember our dead at the 9am and the 11am Masses, not with any sense of triumphalism or jingoism but with a profound sense of gratitude and with a determination to do all that we can to prevent our generation from having to suffer the horrors of warfare in the way previous generations did. We will also remember more recent casualties from the wars that took place after 1945 and to pray for those areas of our world which are still scarred by conflict.

This Remembrance Sunday affords us an opportunity to take a few moments to pause as we acknowledge those who have died. In the words of the poet Lawrence Binyon: "Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning. We will remember them." Fr Dan

Mass for the Deceased This Friday, (November 17th) we will have a Mass for the Deceased at 7.30pm to remember all of those who have died in the previous year.

Emmanuel Church Car Park: A gentle reminder to parishioners to avoid parking in the Emmanuel Church car park when you come to Mass

Children's Liturgy: Parents are respectfully asked not to go out with their children for the Children's Liturgy at the 9am & 11am Masses unless their children are below school age and in the Toddlers' Liturgy.
