*As a parish community we are committed to Growing Together in Faith & Love.

From A Parishioner:

Payne Stewart, a famous professional golfer, always used to wear a bracelet embossed in gold lettering with the letters “W.W.J.D” (“What Would Jesus Do?”). Stewart was wearing it when he lifted the winner's trophy at the 1999 U.S. Open Championship. When life's temptations arose, the phrase acted as a reference point, guiding him in making tough decisions and keeping him on the right path.

The Gospel for the First Sunday of Lent reminds us that Jesus was fully human, just like us, but without sin. He faced real temptations, just as we do, at a time when He was vulnerable. Imagine how significant it would have been for the Devil if Jesus had given in.

Jesus is tempted in three different ways. The Devil seems to be saying that: if you worship me you will never want for anything (the bread); you will never suffer and you can demonstrate your divinity (angels will come to your rescue); and you will have dominance and control over your destiny (the offer of kingdoms).

Jesus, however, does not spend much time thinking about these offers and responds on each occasion by confirming His love for His Father and His intention to remain faithful to Him no matter what.

The lesson for us is clear: giving in to temptation can compromise our relationship with God by prioritising our desires over His will. Jesus resisted temptation because He had prepared through prayer and fasting, reminding us to build our spiritual strength.

Payne Stewart died in a plane crash at the age of 42, leaving behind his wife and two children. Although most of the Learjet was obliterated by the impact, a few items were found intact. One of them was Payne's W.W.J.D. bracelet.

Our Parish Vision Prayer

Loving Father, we ask you to bring this vision to life within us. Embolden us with a desire to grow and mature as missionary disciples of Jesus. Give us the courage and grace to reach out to others within and beyond our parish with compassion and perseverance, so that they too may encounter Jesus and become His disciples. Lead our parish forward in the power of Your Spirit, help us to respond to Your call to evangelise by using our gifts and talents and proclaim Jesus in faith and love to all people. Amen.

Prayer for Pope Francis:

Almighty and Eternal God, you are the everlasting health of those who believe in you. Hear our prayers for your sick servant Francis for whom we implore the aid of your tender mercy, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
Our Lady of Lourdes, Health of the Sick, pray for him.
